The undersigned is also looking after the work as 1st Link MM of the court of Shri Anuj Kumar Singh, Ld. MM, South District, Saket, New Delhi.

Present: Ms.Geeta Malhotra, counsel for the complainant.

Accused no.1 is a company.

Accused no.2 is absent.

Accused no.3 in person.

Mr.Vikas Gupta, counsel for the accused no. 2 & 3.

Accused no.4 has already been absconded.

Since the offence alleged against the accused no. 3 is bailable, accused no. 3 is admitted to court bail on furnishing of PB and SB for sum of Rs.1,00,000/- each. PB furnished and accepted till next date of hearing. Accused no. 3 is directed to furnish surety bond on the next date of hearing.

An application seeking exemption from personal appearance has been moved on behalf of the accused no.2. Though in para no.2 of the application, it has been submitted on behalf of the accused that a criminal misc. case no.4146/2017 & criminal misc. case no.5243/2017 for quashing of the criminal complaint has been filed by the accused before Hon'ble High Court of Delhi and vide order dated 21.03.2018, accused no.2 had been exempted from personal appearance before this court by Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, however, upon inquiry it is submitted by counsel for accused no.2 that in the case in hand no petition for quashing of the criminal complaint has been filed by the accused no.2 and reference in para no.2 of the application is to the petitions which have been filed by the accused for quashing of connected complaint cases. In my considered opinion, no reasonable grounds are made out in the application for exemption of accused no.2 in as much as accused no.2 has not even obtained bail in the present case. Still in the interest of justice, accused no.2 is exempted from personal appearance for today only, subject to cost of Rs.20,000/- to be paid by accused no. 2 to the complainant on the next date.

Put up for appearance of all the accused persons, furnishing of bail bonds, payment of cost and for consideration on notice on 05.05.2018.
