

COURT IS HELD THROUGH VC VIA CISCO WEBEX

78

Ct. Cases 16705/2017

MANKAN DEEP SINGH Vs. SARABJIT SINGH

08.09.2021

Present: Complainant in person.
Mr. Rajesh Tripathi, Ld. Counsel for accused.

Oral exemption sought on behalf of the accused stating that the accused has been vaccinated yesterday. Heard. In view of the reasons, exemption is allowed for today only.

Ld. Counsel for the accused submits that he requires some more time to make the payment.

Complainant objects the same stating that the accused is buying time and not making the payment and requests that the matter be proceeded on merits.

It is submitted by the Ld. Counsel for the accused that he has received copy of complaint and documents.

List the matter on 08.10.2021 for furnishing of PB/SB, framing of notice and further proceedings.

Accused is directed to remain physically present on the NDOH.

(DEEKSHA SETHI)
Metropolitan Magistrate (NI Act)-06
South-West District/Dwarka Courts
New Delhi/08.09.2021