ORDER :-

This is an application for removing the matter from the order caption and allow the defendant No.1 to submit the additional written statement. The application was strongly opposed by the plaintiff by filing say below the application itself.

2. Read the application and the reply. Went through the record of the case. Heard both the learned Advocates for the respective parties at sufficient length. The above matter was on board on 22.12.2023 for filing the additional written statement of added defendants. But he could not produced the document since he was out of Mumbai fo his personal work. Taking into consideratio, reason mentioned in the application, mattter is removed from order caption and additional written statement is accepted. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

- 1) The application (Exh.45) is allowed.
- 2) The matter is removed from the caption order.
- 3) Additional written statement be taken on record.
