Rajesh Joshi Vs. PNB & Ors.

Present: Shri Gurvinder Arora, Advocate, learned counsel for plaintiff.
Shri Dinesh Sahni, Advocate, learned counsel for defendants.

ORDER:-

1. Arguments on the application for production of documents under Order VII Rule 14(1) & (2) read with Section 151 of CPC filed by the defendants have been heard.
2. Learned counsel for the defendants has argued that the plaintiff has not supplied the documents relied upon by him in support of his claim to the defendants which are required for filing of effective written statement by the defendants. It has been finally argued that plaintiff may be directed to supply the aforesaid documents.
3. On the other hand, learned counsel for the plaintiff has argued that copies of plaint were annexed with the summonses sent to the defendants and they cannot ask for another copy. All other documents have also been supplied to the defendants. It has been finally argued that the application may be dismissed.
4. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record carefully.
5. The present suit has been filed by the plaintiff against the defendants, who are his employer. By present suit, the plaintiff has challenged the penalty dated 16.02.2021 and has further sought mandatory injunction regarding the wages etc. It is pertinent to mention here that the documents sought by the applicants/defendants pertained to their department only and copies of all the documents relied upon by the plaintiff are already placed on record and have been sent to the defendants along with notice issued to them. The reply of the plaintiff categorically states the fact that the documents have already been supplied. Even otherwise, all the documents are in possession of the applicants/defendant.

6. Therefore, as the documents have already been supplied to the defendants, the application under reference stands dispose of.
7. For filing written statement, to come up on 25.09.2024.
