

CS 3199-2024. M/s. Shivam Traders and others.

Vs.

Indian Bank and another.

Present: Sh. Amarjit Singh Advocate counsel for the plaintiffs.

Suit has been presented before me being Vacation Judge as Ld. Civil Judge (Sr. Division) is availing summer vacations. Along with the suit, an application for filing the suit during summer vacations being urgent matter, has been filed. Heard. In view of the grounds mentioned in the application and exigency involved, same is allowed and suit is permitted to be entertained in summer vacations.

Alongwith the suit, an application U/o 39 Rules 1 & 2 CPC thereby seeking ad-interim injunction against the defendants has been filed by the plaintiff. Heard. At this stage, no grounds are made out for granting ad-interim ex-parte injunction in favour of the plaintiff. Rather it would be appropriate to hear the opposite party before passing any order on the injunction application. Therefore, notice of the suit as well as that of injunction application be issued to defendants through ordinary manner as well as RC/AD to appear before the court of Ld. Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), for 03.07.2024 subject to furnishing of PF/DM/copies of plaint/RC/AD by the plaintiff. Dasti notice be also given, if so desired.

File be sent to the court of Ld. Civil Judge (Sr.Divn.), Ludhiana well before the date fixed for the purpose of entrustment.

Date of order:19.06.2024
