

PIYASA CHIMNANI @ PRIYANSHA CHIMNANI Vs SUKHWINDER SINGH

Present: Sh. AKASH DEEP SINGH Advocate for plaintiff.
Sh. Harmohan Singh Paul Advocate for defendants.

This case has been taken up today in the wake of the "Mediation For the Nation" Campaign launched by the National Legal Services Authority. From perusal of the pleadings, the Court is satisfied that there appears an element of settlement in the case, suggesting that the matter can be amicably resolved through mediation. Thus, to afford the litigating parties, an opportunity for amicable settlement under the "Mediation For the Nation" Campaign. The parties/respective counsel have appeared and have been apprised of the special campaign for mediation and the facts that their dispute has an element of settlement and can be resolved amicably. Parties have also been sensitized about the benefits of mediation. After due deliberation, the parties/respective counsel have expressed the desire and consent for mediation. On joint request, the case is referred for mediation under the "Mediation For the Nation" Campaign. Parties/respective counsel are directed to appear at the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, ADR Centre, SAS Nagar Mohali today i.e. 06.08.2025.

Ahlmad is directed to send the referral form complete in all respect along with details of both the parties i.e. Name, Address, Contact Number, e-mail Id and also name and contact number of Lawyer/Counsel representing the parties. He is further directed to send the complete copy of petition/application/bail application/copy of reply filed by the respondent, if any, along with ID proof/Adhar Card of the parties, if available, to mediation and conciliation centre well before the date fixed i.e. 11.08.2025 and report be called for 27.08.2025.

Date Of Order: 06.08.2025
Sonal

(Sangam Kaushal)
CJ(JD)/SAS Nagar (Mohali)
UID No. PB0639